

Financial Resource Management, Inc. Celebrates 25th Anniversary
Financial Planners Now Support Clients in Raleigh, Greensboro and Morehead City

RALEIGH, N.C. (November 29, 2010) – Financial Resource Management, Inc, is celebrating 25 years of excellent service to more than 800 clients in 20 different states. Financial Resource Management has been using financial planning, professional experience and personal integrity to help clients solve complex financial issues and reach their personal and corporate financial goals since 1985.

People across North Carolina benefit from Financial Resource Management’s expertise weekly through two different radio shows broadcast over much of the state. Founder Greg Hicks and Wanda Cooper can be heard throughout the Triangle and the Triad on FM Talk 101.1 WZTK on Saturdays at 9AM. Mr. Hicks and Emily Guthrie can be heard across Eastern North Carolina and along the Crystal Coast on WTKF 107.1 FM on Wednesdays at 7:30AM on the Coastal Daybreak Show.

“There have been many changes in business in the past 25 years, but we’re passionate about maintaining the same absolute dedication to personal and attentive client support that we’ve had for more than two decades,” said Greg Hicks, founder and president of Financial Resource Management. “Our team is committed to providing unbiased direction and practical expertise to help clients navigate the complicated world of investments as well as tax, retirement and estate planning.”

Greg Hicks began his financial career in 1985 and founded Financial Resource Management shortly thereafter. The company has expanded to open an office in Greensboro in 1991 that he manages with the help of experienced advisor Wanda Cooper. In 2001, Financial Resource Management expanded again opening an office in Morehead City and hiring another talented advisor, Emily Guthrie. The Financial Resource Management team includes more than a half dozen client support persons.
